READING SUB-TEST – ANSWER KEY
PARTS B & C

READING SUB-TEST – ANSWER KEY

PART B: QUESTIONS 1-6

1	C	any approach which leads to misunderstandings.
2	B	to raise their awareness of the value of asthma action plans.
3	B	ensure that any chemicals in the hospital are properly documented.
4	A	the rationale for documenting incidents and errors.
5	A	Staff should make it a priority to rule out spinal injuries.
6	B	Users may experience difficulties when switching to alternatives.

PART C: QUESTIONS 7-14

7	C	the degree of disruption it brings to patients' lives
8	C	addressing issues shared by many patients with persistent conditions.
9	B	she had expressed an interest in having treatment of this kind.
10	C	alter her approach to managing her condition.
11	B	Ella's behaviour in the group.
12	D	She blamed others for her inability to look after herself on a daily basis.
13	A	coming to accept that she could live with her condition.
14	D	Ella's ability to manage her own condition

PART C: QUESTIONS 15-22

15	D	frustrated by the lack of progress towards treating Alzheimer's.
16	D	are focusing on some of the less relevant aspects of Alzheimer's.
17	C	It works regardless of the actual cause of the disease.
18	A	how important it is that neurons in the brain are in constant contact.
19	A	signals.
20	D	Reversal of damage may not have any effect on the patient's memory.
21	C	medical professionals
22	C	A prediction tool for Alzheimer's will be developed.